SUNDAY INTRODUCTIONS

First reading 1 Kings 19:9, 11-13

Recognising the presence of God is not always easy and he comes to us in expected ways, when we least expect it. In story, the prophet Elijah is very downcast and in need of God's help, not just to keep going but even to keep alive.

Second reading Romans 9:1-5

Paul the theologian can sometimes seem almost superhuman in his faith and commitment. In this reading, we glimpse the human Paul. As Jew, he feels tremendous sadness that only a few of his fellow Jews came to recognise Jesus as the Messiah. It is not only felt but powerfully expressed.

Gospel Matthew 14:22-33

Our gospel story is a kind of parable. At the time of writing, some felt that "being church" was too hard and that somehow God was no longer with them. Into that context of fear and despondency, Matthew offers us encouragement.

Public Rosaries

There are two regular public rosaries in the Parish under the auspices of the Legion of Mary. These take place:

Every First Saturday of the month at Stillorgan Village (near the Fiddler of Dooney bronze) at 4 p.m. This rosary for peace has been going on for over 30 years.

Every Thursday weekly from July to October at Our Lady of Lourdes Grotto St. Laurence's Park at 8.15 p.m.

All are welcome.

Poetry in Nature

Glenmalure August 19th 2017

With Ger Murphy

This one day workshop invites us to rest deeply in nature and poetry and to return a little more to our essential nature between land and sky, body and source and to taste our quiet ever present being in the company of others.

Time: 10.00 - 4.00

Date: Saturday 19th August

At Cill na Ghreine, Glenmalure Valley, Co. Wicklow.

Cost €35

Further information and booking contact Ger at germurphy@edgeworth.ie or 086 6049007 or Ger Murphy on Facebook.

Tuesday 15th August

Feast of the Assumption

10 a.m. & 1 p.m.

Three Day Pilgrimage Season Opens on Lough Derg

Father Owen McEaney, Prior of Lough Derg, has offered a special invitation to the island for families, ahead of next year's World Meeting of Families (WMOF2018). He said, 'You are invited to come and walk in the spiritual footsteps of your family - parents, grandparents, relations - walk the same ground where they walked and prayed, reconnect with their prayer for their family and future family. Today you are that family; come and be touched by God's grace in Lough Derg.' The Lough Derg three day pilgrimage season for 2017 is open now until 13 August.
