Sunday Readings*First Reading*Acts 4:32-35

What does being a follower of Jesus mean? In this reading, we see that it includes a new "belonging" to the family of the faith, a belonging which implies community of goods and gifts.

Second Reading*1 Peter 1:3-9

Our reading is a prayer, praising God. Nevertheless, it names some of the challenges to faith, challenges which have not gone away. In spite of or indeed because of having to suffer for the faith, there is powerful note of joy in our reading.

Gospel*John 20:19-31

This is a justly famous and remembered story. Why was it written? To reassure people that later generations in the faith were not less fortunate than earlier generations. Perhaps we too may suspect that for people before us faith was somehow easier.
