Welcome to Fr. Joseph

Fr. Joseph Ogunnupebi from the Diocese of Ljebu-Ode in Nigeria will be helping out in the parishes of Kilmacud and Mount Merrion for the months of July and August.

He is currently studying Catechises in Rome. He is a friend of Fr. Clement and we welcome him among us.

SUNDAY INTRODUCTIONS

First reading 2 Kings 4:8-11,13-16
Today we hear a somewhat legendary story of the prophet Elisha. There is a good teaching: goodness leads to goodness and kindness leads to kindness.

Second reading Romans 6:3-4, 8-11
We have all be baptised, usually as children. What does it mean to be baptised? St Pau's teaching is enriching, deep and life-giving.

Gospel Matthew 10:37-42
There are two parts to today's Gospel. The second part, about hospitality and kindness, has already been anticipated by the Elisha story. The first part, however, is startling and unexpected.

Liturgy of the Word Service with the distribution of Holy Communion

We know from the Acts of the Apostles that after Jesus had left the earth his followers assembled to remember him and reflect on what he had said in order to begin their mission of proclaiming the good news. From Acts we hear:

And all those who had believed were together and had all things in common; and they began selling their property and possessions and were sharing them with all, as anyone might have need. Day by day continuing with one mind in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, they were taking their meals together with gladness and sincerity of heart, praising God and having favor with all the people. And the Lord was adding to their number day by day those who were being saved.

The simplicity of that beginning reminds us how far in one sense we have distanced ourselves from what was anticipated by Jesus.

Today we need to return to the lay led liturgies of the first church. I admit that in this case it is because of need but that does not diminish the importance of lay led liturgies. As I have said in previous newsletters with the reduction of the priests and the age of some of our priests each Thursday at 10am there will be a Liturgy of the Word Service with the distribution of Holy Communion led by volunteer parishioners. There will be no funeral on Thursday's. For those who prefer Mass there is 10am Mass in Mount Merrion. I wish to thank those who have volunteered and encourage those who can to support them and the community.

Fr. Tony

At all Masses this weekend there will be the annual collection for the Pope and Pontifical Charities. It will replace the usual Share Collection.
