SUNDAY INTRODUCTIONS

First reading 1 Samuel 3:3-10,19

When God tries to get through to us, sometimes we are not ready, deaf in some way. This experience is reassuringly mirrored in today's story in which the young Samuel needs help to recognise that it is God who is calling him.

Second reading 1 Corinthians 6:13-15,17-20

Corinth in the time of St Paul may see a long way away from twenty-first century reality. Human nature is, nevertheless, the same and the same issues that come up now came up then: how to bring together my Christian values and my everyday life? In this particular example, notice the reasons given—are they still valid for us today?

Gospel John 1:35-42

Today's gospel challenges us with a simple phrase: "come and see." How did the first disciples get to know Jesus.

Sincere sympathies to the family, neighbours and friends of Liam Russell (Coolnevaun), and Harry Elliott (Linden Lea Park) whose funerals took place during the week.

18th – 25th January Week of Prayer for Christian Unity

It was the great desire of Jesus, the night before his Passion and Death, that all his disciples be united as one, and each year from 18-25th January, the Church prays in particular for this desire of Jesus. This year the theme and texts for the Week of Prayer has been prepared by an ecumenical group in the Caribbean. The theme is: "Your right hand, O Lord, glorious in power" Ex 15:6.

Evening Prayer will be offered for this great desire of Jesus at 4.30pm each day at the Carmelite Monastery, Upper Kilmacud Road. More details can be found on the Church notice boards and on the Kilmacud Carmel website: www.kilmacudcarmel.ie.

All are welcome to come and pray with us any or all of the days. We would be particularly grateful for support for our guest speakers:

Thursday 18th: Rev. Vanessa Wyse Jackson, Rathgar Methodist Church

Friday 19th: Dr Paul Manook, (Dishchekonian) The Armenian Apostolic Church in Ireland

Monday 22nd: Rev. Ian Gallagher, St. Brigid's Church of Ireland, Stillorgan

Thursday 25th: Rev Martin Kilmurray O.Carm, Prior, Gort Muire Carmelite Community
