The Diocese are producing a weekly leaflet called Choose Life. Copies of these will be available at the Church doors each week.

Introduction to the Readings

First Reading Jeremiah 31:31-34

What is God like? Here's a great passage from Jeremiah in which we hear a deeply reassuring word of God. This is what God is like: endless compassion, endless forgiveness, love without end.

Second Reading Hebrew 5:7-9

Was Jesus really like us? Here's a passage, echoing the prayer in Gethsemane, which shows him struggling with God's will. Because he is like us, he can help us.

Gospel John 12:20-33

Some Greeks wish to see Jesus. His reception seems to be almost a warning: are you sure you want to be a follower because there are consequences?

Sincere sympathies to the family, neighbours and friends of Alan Stephen Field (Rathmore Avenue) whose funeral took place during the week.

Recruitment notice Senior Help Line

Are You a Good Listener?

Senior Help Line, Ireland's only confidential telephone listening service for older people, needs women and men aged 55+ to train as telephone line volunteers. You would work a three hour rota every three weeks in the Royal Hospital, Donnybrook as follows: Friday 4-7pm, Saturday 1-4pm, Saturday 4-7pm, Sunday 10am-1pm, Sunday 1-4pm and Sunday 4-7pm. Your role would be to listen with empathy to a range of calls, which may involve loneliness, health and family worries. You do not give advice but you do support callers in each situation presented. Full training is provided. The next Information Morning takes place on Monday April 9. If you would like to know more, please contact Anne on 087-7450721
