SUNDAY INTRODUCTIONS

First Reading Acts 4:32-35
 What does being a follower of Jesus mean? In this reading, we see that it includes a new "belonging" to the family of the faith, a belonging which implies community of goods and gifts.

Second Reading 1 John 5:1-6
 If someone said to you, what does "loving" God mean, what would you reply? There is a threefold response in today's reading - the first two are what you would guess but the third one is challenging.

Gospel John 20:19-31
 This is a justly famous and remembered story. Why was it written? To reassure people that later generations in the faith were not less fortunate than earlier generations. Perhaps we too may suspect that for people before us faith was somehow easier.
