SUNDAY INTRODUCTIONS

First reading Wisdom 1:13-15, 2:23-24

All of us face the brute fact of death, first of all through people close to us and then we face our own. We have many questions, of course. This reading offers a reflection on death from the point of view of God's intentions.

Second reading 2 Corinthians 8:7, 9, 13-15

For once, St Paul is looking for money. He knows that the people he is asking are poor, so he has to be careful. His main argument is very powerful and his request is very moderate.

Gospel Mark 5:21-43

There are two stories today, one "sandwiched" inside another. Both concern women, an older woman and a very young girl. Both are concerned with the spring of life.

Please take care when you are driving in and out of the car park. Be extra careful of other people walking to their cars.

The Family is the hope of the future. Let us pray especially for families facing serious difficulties: may Our Lord assist them.

Pray-A-Thon
A new initiative for families to prepare for WMOF2018 in the home!
As Ireland prepares to host WMOF2018 in August, we are invited to reach out to family members/friends and pray for them and any special intentions they might have. Let's prepare our hearts for this joyful occasion! Prayer leaflets available at the doors to the church and from our WMOF2018 table.

Funds raised for Fr Tony's Walk While You Can charity. Research Motor Neurone and the Irish Motor Neurone Association in the Parish last weekend.

A big thank you to all who supported the Gala Charity Concert in aid of Fr Tony's Walk While You Can charity. €13,000 was raised for Research Motor Neurone and the Irish Motor Neurone Association. It was a wonderful community evening where the parishes of Kilmacud and Mount Merrion came together to show their love and support for Fr. Tony. A special word of thanks to our musical director Thomas Kehoe for helping make the night such a success.

The outdoor collection, after all Masses last weekend, raised €7,400 for the charity. Many thanks to all involved.
