God will be your everlasting light (Isaiah 60.20)

LGBT Meeting 19 October 2018

A lovely group of members of the LGTB met in my home. We all listened to each other with respect. What we heard was heart-warming and at times heart-breaking. It was sad but not surprising how rejected many felt by the language and harsh attitudes of those who profess to follow the commandment to love enunciated by Jesus.

I thank those who wrote to me asking me to cancel the meeting though I disagree with you and object to the language of exclusion in one letter.

The next meeting will take place at 79 The Rise Mount Merrion on 15 November 2018 sat 7.30pm

All members of the LGBT community are welcome.

How can we renew faith in Jesus Christ in our Parish & pass on the faith to our young people?

Following the recent visit of Pope Francis, Archbishop Diarmuid Martin has asked all parishes to reflect on how we can renew faith in Jesus Christ in our parish and help pass that faith on to our young people. We want to hear the views of everyone - young and old. Each week we will share a question with you to help stimulate thoughts and discussion. Please take time to consider your response and share it with us.

Question 3: What can we do to support parents sharing the faith with the next generation? What opportunities can we give our community to worship together and help foster our prayer life?

Responses can be placed in suggestion boxes around the church or are welcome via public or private message to the Parish Facebook @kilmacudparish or to kilmacudparishengagement@gmail.com

Upcoming Parish Assembly

When: 14th November @ 7.30pm in the Parish Centre

Facilitator: Fr Donal Harrington

We are all encouraged to attend a facilitated Parish Assembly to input into our parish's response to Archbishop Martin's call to action on how we renew our faith in Jesus Christ and help pass that faith on to our young people.
